DEFENDANT: Joseph Brunner CASE NUMBER: 1:20-cr-122

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your probation, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

- 1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of the time you were sentenced, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
- 2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
- 3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
- 4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
- 5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
- 7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
- 9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
- 10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
- 11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
- 12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
- 13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only
A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- (1) Shall participate in Home Detention with the Curfew component of the location monitoring program for a period of 90 days, beginning upon his release from the inpatient program at the Phoenix Center. While on curfew in the location monitoring program, defendant is restricted to his residence every day from 9:00 p.m. to 7:00 a.m., or as directed by the probation officer. The probation officer shall adjust the curfew hours as necessary to allow the defendant to comply with requirements of his employment, if any. Defendant's compliance with the home curfew requirement shall be monitored by the use of Radio Frequency. Defendant shall abide by all of the requirements established by the probation office related to the use of this location monitoring technology. Defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of location monitoring based on his ability to pay as determined by the probation officer.
- (2) Shall submit to substance abuse testing to determine if he has used a prohibited substance. Defendant shall not attempt to obstruct or tamper with the testing methods.
- (3) Shall abstain from alcohol and all intoxicating substances during your term of house arrest and supervision.
- (4) Shall participate in a substance abuse treatment program, which may include inpatient or outpatient treatment as needed, and follow the rules and regulations of that program. The probation officer will supervise defendant's participation in the program (provider, location, modality, duration, intensity, etc.). Defendant may be responsible for the costs of the program, to be determined by the probation officer, based upon ability to pay.
- (5) Shall participate in a mental health treatment program, which may include inpatient or outpatient treatment, and psychopharmacological treatment. Defendant shall follow the rules and regulations of that program to include taking all medications as prescribed. The probation officer, in consultation with the treatment provider, will supervise defendant's participation in the program (provider, location, modality, duration, intensity, etc.). Defendant may be responsible for the costs of the program, to be determined by the probation officer, based upon ability to pay.
- (6) Defendant shall allow the probation department to install monitoring software on any computer or other electronic device through which he accesses the internet or sends electronic mail. Defendant may be responsible for the costs of such monitoring, based upon ability to pay.
- (7) Defendant shall not have contact, directly or indirectly, with any of the victims of this crime or their immediate family members.
